Describe the best thing about the course/instructor that was effective in helping you learn.	James was very responsive via email and held recitations and office hours to discuss class concepts. He provided prompt feedback on assignments and placed each student in the context of the entire class distribution. He also provided notes. I do not have any other suggestions for James. He did his job as a TA.

Describe the best thing about the course/instructor that was effective in helping you learn.	James was hands-down one of the best TA's I've had in my academic career so far -- he was always willing to go above and beyond to help us understand the material, did a great job answering questions, and made the material as accessible as possible.

Describe the best thing about the course/instructor that was effective in helping you learn.	James was an awesome Teacher's Assistant! He was always available by email and in person. He held weekly recitations and he was very energetic and polite to all the students. We could tell that he is very enthusiastic about American Constitutional Law and he wanted to share that enthusiasm with us, which motivated us to learn.
