Comments and evaluations of TA James Bisbee

Jim was “always accessible via office hours and truly had an interest in my development as a student. He was genuine, charismatic, and inquisitive. He is the most inspirational Teaching Assistant I have had.” – Harvinder B.

Jim was... “the best TA... [He] took time to explain difficult concepts, offered helpful office hours and even enlightening discussions.” - Marilu D.

“I really appreciated the knowledge and advice [Jim] shared with me about how I can take steps to further my own research and career in addition to the knowledge he shared with me about his own research in our personal conversations.” – Krysta H.

“Since my time at NYU I’ve never had a TA that offered such constructive criticism on my writing. It was clearly evident that Jim sincerely cared about each student.” – Abraham O.

“When emailing us our final grades he included a short, individualized thank you note to each of us. Though seemingly insignificant, this small detail really showed us how much he actually cared.” – Wayne B.

“Jim was my TA in two courses, and he’s by far the best TA I’ve had.” – Patrick G.

“Jim really went above and beyond as a TA... He was kind and informed, and went so far as to assist me in getting through my thesis work simply because I asked him for help. Jim displayed exemplary dedication to the job.” – Alex H.

“Jim was also incredibly personable and made a point of getting to know us as people, rather than just students!” – Nour O.
